

PE Kit- message from the PE Department

Dear Parent/Carer,

At the start of the academic year the PE department purchased a number of spare kits to facilitate the participation of students that may on occasion forget their PE kit. Unfortunately throughout the academic year, our collection of borrowed kits have not been returned. This now means we are not always able to offer spare kits to students who have forgotten their kit during their timetabled lessons.

Please can we ask if your child has borrowed a kit this academic year, if this could be washed and returned as soon as possible so we can ensure all students who need to borrow this, are able to do so. If you are unsure if your child has borrowed a kit; you will see the word 'SPARE' embroidered under the school logo, or a single initial under the school logo.

We also always welcome any donations of unused Bohunt kit that your son/daughter may have at home that is now too small. This also extends to our Year 11 Parents/carers who may wish to donate their Bohunt kit upon leaving in June.

Many thanks for your support,

The Bohunt PE Department.
