

Message from the Headteacher

Dear Parent/Carer,

As we complete our first day of partial closure I wanted to write and thank you all for your support as we closed down the school last week and practised home learning with our students. As I hope you are aware we were able to rehearse delivering google classroom lessons with Y9 and 10 offsite. Y7 and 8 were able to go through lessons on site with teachers present to help and troubleshoot. Our initial feedback has indicated today's lessons on the whole have gone smoothly. If you have any recurring issues or feedback to share please send this to Mr Jones (pjones@bohuntworthing.com).

Although unplanned and at very short notice we were also able to give Y11 a good send off on Thursday including their year group photos, a staff movie and a celebratory assembly. We have promised they will return at a point in the future so this is very much au revoir.

Today we are down to a skeleton staff to support students of key workers and those who receive additional support in school. All staff who can are volunteering to come in and help with this on a rotational basis and we are happy and proud to be doing our bit to support the many critical parts of national infrastructure at this time. This means our reception is still open and if at any time you feel you need some additional support please do contact us to discuss how we can help.

Our revamped website contains copies of all correspondence we have recently sent out if you wish to check any previous messages – see parents/latest letters. There is also a page which contains information on home learning arrangements and supportive documentation. This can be accessed through the parent, student and curriculum tabs.

It is really important at times such as this that we as a community do all that we can to support each other. Continuing with academic studies has an important role to play as this time cannot be recovered. In addition we are also looking at ways to keep in touch across our school community beyond the curriculum. We look forward to seeing our virtual community come together, please look after yourselves and each other.

Best wishes

Mr Whitehead
