

Police Community Roadshow

Dear parent/carers

As part of our ongoing work between Worthing Secondary schools and the local police, we were really pleased to have a visit from their community task force across lunchtime today. They engaged with a wide range of students, discussing the issues of knife crime and gang culture in the community.

We and the police always appreciate feedback on such events to gauge their success. If you discuss the matter with your child tonight please do send any comments with regards to the messages they have picked up.

Kind regards

Mr A Whitehead
