

Children in Need Fundraising Events

Dear Parent/Carer,

I am writing to you to inform you that, as part of our fundraising for Children in Need, we are running two events in school.

Firstly, on Friday 13th November there will be a non-school uniform day. The theme from Children in Need is 'come as yourself' so students are free to wear their own clothes. As with previous year's inappropriate dress will not be tolerated (e.g. short skirts/crop tops/offensive slogans on clothing). Students should bring £1 into school to wear their own clothing and we hope to raise as much money as possible for the charity.

Secondly, this week we are running a competition to design your own mask with a theme of either celebrating Children in Need, celebrating positive mental health and wellbeing or their own chosen theme. It is £1 to enter and students should bring their designs on A4 paper to myself in G40. The best design will be chosen by an in school panel, and made into an actual mask.

If you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards
