

Sussex Police Letter to all parents

Dear parent/carers,

Please find attached a letter from Sussex police with regards to young people and socialising during lockdown. They have requested we share it with our communities and it asks the simple question - do you know where your child is? Whilst recognising the frustrations that the current restrictions might have for young people it emphasises the important role we all play in making sure lockdown is as effective as possible so that its impact can lead to it being ended as early as possible. Please take the time you go through the content with your son or daughter particularly with half term around the corner.

Best wishes

Mr Whitehead
