

ERA Day Wednesday 17th March

Dear Parents and Carers,

Our final ERA Day of the academic year is taking place next Wednesday 17th March in school. We have managed to plan an exciting day of extra curricular activities for the students, so hopefully they will have a really enjoyable day. Please see below for a brief outline of what is happening-

Year 7- THE EARTHSOT PROJECT, this is the Nobel Prize of Environmental Innovation, which is backed by both Sir David Attenborough and Prince William.

Year 8- Careers and Languages Showcase, an exciting day of Careers information, Money Management and exploration of the world of Languages.

Year 9 - Health and Wellbeing Day, a variety of sessions around staying healthy in body and mind.

Year 10- Macbeth in Performance, a message from Mrs Brugnoli about the day-

As another ERA day draws closer, I would like to use this opportunity to promote what we think is going to be an interesting, useful and engaging day. The English department are working hard alongside the Expressive Arts team to put together a day of activities surrounding the GCSE key text of 'Macbeth'.

We have chosen to keep the focus on the performance aspect of the play to explore it in a way that it was intended all those centuries ago. Students will be delivered sessions that explore how Shakespeare used language to create the eerie and foreboding atmosphere, soliloquies in performance and they will also be watching a performance filmed at the Globe theatre on London's Southbank that we have signed up for specially.

As we have been covering 'Macbeth' during this period of remote learning, it makes this ERA day even more important in terms of supporting the students' understanding of the text and gives them the opportunity to make links and connections they missed during this period.

Year 11-Maths Challenge Day, a carousel of Maths related challenges and activities.

All students should be in school uniform for the day, and school timings will be as normal.
