

Co-Curricular Clubs - Half Term Update

Dear Parent/Carer,

After what has been a busy first half term, we are very pleased that many students are taking advantage of the wide range of different clubs that we have on offer on a weekly basis. 84% of students across Year 7 - 10 have signed up to at least one club per week. We are delighted that so many students are taking every opportunity that is being presented to them to further develop their skill-set or pursue a passion of theirs, whilst demonstrating the characteristics of a Game-changer.

Attendance to Clubs

We would expect your child to attend their selected club each week, however, if your child is unable to attend then please contact the school office in advance. You can email info@bohuntworthing.com, please include your child's name, tutor and club. Attendance to ten club sessions or more every term is rewarded with ten ERA points as well as an entry into a prize draw.

Club Cancellations

In recognition of the rising number of absences due to illness for both students and staff, it is important to acknowledge that unfortunately co-curricular clubs may be cancelled on occasion, despite our best efforts to ensure they go ahead. Cancelling a club is certainly not the desired outcome and is not a decision that we take lightly, however, in some instances this is unavoidable.

In light of this, it is important to inform you of our cancellation policy. As such, if clubs are to be cancelled due to planned staff absence or a scheduled event, notice will be provided in as much time as possible via School Gateway. If clubs are to be cancelled for a previously unforeseen reason, such as staff illness, the school office will send home an urgent communication through School Gateway or via text message to notify parents of the change of plans. Students will also be emailed to ensure they have been informed of the cancellation, with staff supporting this process by notifying them at the room/location of their club.

The table below indicates which clubs have been cancelled due to scheduled events, up until the end of January 2022:
